by TOI, GRP inspector Suresh ran and jumped into C6 coach of the train at Jolarpet station. He was not in uniform. TTEs Sudhakar and Sadeesh asked him to furnish a ticket and when he didn't have one, Suresh said he was a GRP inspector. The TTEs demanded his identification card, which he allegedly did not show.

Suresh said he had apprehended a phone thief and had rushed into the train to check if some of the stolen mobiles belonged to any passengers. Meanwhile, the passengers in the coach gathered and complained that a government servant was travelling without a ticket.

The inspector allegedly refused to pay the fine and get an excess fare ticket (EFT), stating he was on duty.

Tempers flared as both parties traded abuses. The TTEs pushed Suresh and held him by the neck. The RPF staff also did the same, all the time demanding his identification. He refused to give the same. Later, Suresh had shown his ID to the TTEs.

Meanwhile, the TTEs tried to file a counter complaint against the inspector at Puratchi Thalaivar Dr MGR Central railway station but in vain. They managed to get a CSR late on Saturday night. TOI has a copy of the document. It's learned that 10 passengers who witnessed the incident have given a written statement that they would be willing to testify about it. In the videos, some passengers are seen complaining against the government servant who did not have a ticket. Interestingly, in the FIR registered by GRP, the names of TTEs and RPF staff are not mentioned. Similarly, in the complaint given by TTEs to GRP, the name of the inspector is not mentioned.

Railway officials said ticketless travel by policemen as well as their own employees was rampant in air-conditioned compartments on the Jolarpet-Katpadi-Arakkonam-Chennai section. While railway employees show union cards to avoid getting off AC compartments, policemen allegedly use the clout of their uniform, said a senior TTE, who sought anonymity. Two years ago, the commercial department had started a drive to identify the policemen and railway employees travelling without bonafide tickets on the section, but it was later dropped. Tension prevails between GRP and southern railway as there have been scuffles on trains and ticket counters in Chennai in the last few months.
